CV Sebastian Pflum

After studying law and art and visual history in Tübingen and Berlin, Sebastian Pflum began his professional career in 2011 in the Berlin office of the Phillips de Pury & Company auction house.

Shortly thereafter, he became personal assistant to the Permanent Secretary for Cultural Affairs of the State of Berlin, André Schmitz.

In 2014 he moved to the Berlin Opera Foundation (Stiftung Oper in Berlin) as a consultant to the General Director Georg Vierthaler, before taking up a leading position at the Brandenburg Gate Foundation (Stiftung Brandenburger Tor) and as Managing Director of CAMPUS Pariser Platz Veranstaltungs GmbH from 2017.

Sebastian Pflum has been Managing Director of the Stiftung KUNSTFORUM der Berliner Volksbank gGmbH since October 2019.

As a part-time job, Sebastian Pflum is involved in numerous honorary posts for years and advises on cultural projects. Among other things, he is a co-founder of the international art market forum ART. TALKING BUSINESS..
