

We are now also part of Bloomberg Connects!

Dear press and media representatives
Dear friends of the Stiftung Kunstforum Berliner Volksbank,

As one of only three institutions in Berlin to date, we are now also part of the Bloomberg Connects App. With this new multilingual exhibition guide, we are taking a significant step towards international presence and accessibility. The art collection has been available online on our website since 2021.

The app provides fascinating information about the exhibitions and guides you through the highlights of our collection with an audio guide. You can also listen to artists talking about their works and gain insights into past exhibitions.

The free guide can be downloaded from Google Play or the App Store and provides access to exhibitions in hundreds of cultural institutions around the world: Centre Pompidou in Paris, Anne Frank House in Amsterdam, Fundació Joan Miró in Barcelona and MoMa in New York are just a few examples that can be visited at any time and from anywhere thanks to the guide.

In Germany, in addition to us, the Stiftung Kunstforum Berliner Volksbank, the Berlin institutions Georg Kolbe Museum and The Feuerle Collection are also represented.

We would like to invite you to experience the offerings of the Stiftung Kunstforum Berliner Volksbank digitally. You can currently hear how the artist Burkhard Held is represented in the exhibition 100 Jahre Held(t)en. Werner Heldt und Burkhard Held talks about his works.

We hope you enjoy your (digital) visit to the exhibition!
